

SharePointHosting.com Leads with SQL Sentry Event Manager

Leading Microsoft SharePoint Host Leverages Event Manager to Optimize SQL Server

CHARLOTTE, NC – July 27, 2007 – SQL Sentry, Inc., the developer of award winning management solutions for Microsoft SQL Server, announced today that SharePointHosting.com has joined their Hosting Partner Program. Event Manager's advanced scheduling, alerting and automation features deliver the efficient control that hosting organizations need to optimize the performance of their database servers and related IT resources.

"SQL Sentry Event Manager allows our DBA team to monitor and maintain SQL Server in a fraction of the usual time and focus on the more strategic tasks of balancing our dynamic growth while keeping our recognized quality of service standards high," said Larry Strange, CEO of SharePointHosting.com.

"We are pleased to introduce SharePointHosting.com as our Partner." said Peter Shire, Director of Channel Sales at SQL Sentry. "Their staff has unique expertise and knowledge on SharePoint Server. Membership in our Partner Program allows SharePointHosting.com to deliver additional services and benefits to their clientele, including increased uptime and performance for their database servers, and quicker response to critical conditions via advanced alerting and self-healing capabilities."
